DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Owens USPN 4,298,140.

Owens discloses a newspaper vending machine comprising:

- "horizontally stacking periodicals (24 figure 2) between a back push plate (36 figure 2), a front block plate (40 figure 2), and a front toe (34 figure 2)"
- "applying force against stack through back push plate" (72,36 figure 2)
- "apply a blade front of the periodical ... frictionally engages ... push it upward so that the toe no longer holds the periodical" (45,46 figure 6)
- "disengaging the frictional attachment ... thereby dispensed" (figure 6)

Allowable Subject Matter

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: a periodical dispenser "wherein the engagement of a cam to the cam track causes motion to the blade ... thereby releasing the periodical at the front of the stack" in combination with the rest of the claim language is not taught or fairly suggested by the prior art.

Claims 1-6 are allowed over the available prior art.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. USPNs 3,912,124, 4,257,531, 4,667,803, and 5,067,605.
